Mowbray View Thirsk

This exciting new development is on the outskirts of the pretty North Yorkshire market town of Thirsk – the home of renowned author and vet James Herriot.

Nestling between the North Yorkshire Moors and the Yorkshire Dales, Thirsk has plenty of independent shops and businesses as well as leading brands. Bustling open-air markets are held in the pretty, medieval, cobbled town square which is bordered by pubs and restaurants.

Thirsk Racecourse and the World of James Herriot are both popular attractions and there are a number of sports and leisure clubs as well as schools, medical centres and supermarkets.

Mowbray View is 1.3 miles from Thirsk town centre and lies between the A168 and A61, which lead to Ripon, 11 miles to the west and with junctions 49 and 50 of the A1 (M) respectively, for Darlington in the north, 38 miles and Leeds in the south, 45 miles. The A19 links Thirsk with the city of York, 25 miles away. It's just a 5-minute drive to Thirsk Railway Station which runs services to Manchester, York and London King's Cross. Local and national buses run from the Market Place to York, Ripon and Northallerton and for air travel Teeside International Airport is 28 miles.
